This form is for members to use the club’s facilities and club boats until expiry. If no expiry is set, the expiry is for the day issued only. The maximum duration for expiry is 1 month (42 days for open event series). The online form must also be completed at www.wilsoniansc.org.uk/memberships where it will be reviewed and subsequently approved.

The membership team can be contacted at memberships@wilsoniansc.org.uk if you require further details. Please ensure you have been inducted so that you are familiar with the club and how it operates.

Declaration - I understand that my provisional membership:

- is only active once payment has been received and signed off by a club officer or CDO.
- does not allow me to vote or attend at official general meetings of the club.
- can include monohull dinghies up to 5.5m in length and with a Portsmouth Yardstick not exceeding 1382.
- may not include a dinghy space if one is not available.
- excludes me to bring another dinghy to the club or move an existing dinghy without approval.
- requires me to securely tie-down all dinghies to its trolley and ground (where ground tie-downs exist).
- requires me to attach a label to my trolley(s) and trailer(s) with dinghy class, sail number, and my name.
- requires me to hold and maintain adequate third-party liability for all dinghies sailed or stored at the club.
- may require club officials to move my dinghies and trailers where access or work is required.
- excludes the storage of trailers unless prior approval has been received by the general committee.
- includes that I am responsible for the seaworthiness of all dinghies on my membership whilst afloat.
- includes assistance from safety boats for persons only when they are officially launched for club events.
- should have class association membership for race results to be recorded for open events.
- should comply with sailing instructions published and to sign-on and off for all racing at the race box.
- excludes any responsibility from the club for loss or damage to dinghies or personal property.
- includes my responsibility for the juniors on my membership but can designate other adult members.
- excludes the club from being expected to exercise supervision or control to juniors on my membership.
- excludes the club to look after and accept responsibility for juniors not engaged in sailing.
- can only be approved once per year unless extended by the General Committee.
- excludes the right to be assigned a club key.
- requires all those persons on this form to abide by the club’s rules and byelaws.
- allows for photos to be taken and used on the club’s social media posts and for marketing purposes.
